School of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science (SEECS) has one (1) Research Assistant opening for the HEC funded project titled “Deep Packet Inspection in Mobile Communication Networks”. This position is based at SEECS in Islamabad and will be requiring work on Universal Software Radio Peripheral Kit (USRP) programmable radios.

We require skilled graduate/masters-student who has developed expertise in mobile communication networks, and possessive effective programming skills. Applicants for this position must have significant programming experience; the requirements include, but are not limited to:

- Experience in C/C++
- Radio programming and interface development (especially on USRP)
- Algorithms Design
- In depth of knowledge of the mobile communication networks

Salary of the research assistant is as per the guidelines of HEC for a period of ten months. This is a full-time position.

Email your resume at: usman.younis@seecs.edu.pk

Last day to submit the CV is Monday 09 February 2015.